

Free Drinks (LV - 28.4.16)

Lola's in Las Vegas
Still works the clubs at night
Offering drinks and cocktails
To the punters left and right

In monotone, the pleasures of Cocktails she can provide
She gives to all the best she can
Self esteem is not required

And who is there to notice
When the focus is on fun
Some dollars down and drinks for free
'Same again doll – we're not done'

The monotony of duty then
Repeats itself as duty knows
At each and every table
And that monotony just grows
